Central Michigan University

Established in 1892, Central Michigan University is one of the nation's 100 largest public universities, with more than 20,000 students on its Mount Pleasant campus and another 7,000 enrolled online and at more than 60 locations worldwide. CMU offers 200 academic programs at the undergraduate, master's, specialist, and doctoral levels, including nationally ranked programs in entrepreneurship, journalism, music, audiology, teacher education, psychology, and physician assistant. CMU's unique offerings also include the only meteorology major in Michigan and the only bachelor's degree concentration in microscopy in the nation.

With accomplished professors, opportunities for students to engage in applied research, and world-class facilities, CMU is committed to providing students with a superior learning environment and global perspective to compete in an increasingly complex world.

CMU competes in the NCAA's Division I Mid-American Conference in 7 men's and 9 women's sports, and is located in Mount Pleasant, Michigan, a classic college town with a blend of natural features, family attractions, small-town life, and university culture.
